IT'S CLEAN-UP DAY TOMORROW! GET RID OF RUBBISH!

Make City Spick And Span
For Convention, Is Plea;
Display Civic Pride

By T. W. WATSON
City Manager of Glendale
People of Glendale! This is to remind you that tomorrow is "Clean-up Day." We feel confident that you will want to take advantage of the provisions that the city has made to remove waste matter of all kinds, the presence of which makes the city unsightly, so we repeat the announcement made several days ago, that the city will remove all waste matter and rubbish that cannot conveniently be disposed of on private premises if the same is gathered and placed in receptacles or convenient and compact piles along the streets or alleys by Tuesday evening, the 21st instant.

As announced before, a committee representing the Chamber of Commerce and the city has made an extensive inspection of the city and has reported that there are large accumulations of waste matter and rubbish on some private premises and also in alleys. The largest accumulations noted, however, were in the alleys. These accumulations have been placed there largely by owners of abutting property, therefore the request is made of the owners of such property to gather whatever waste matter and rubbish that may be in the alley at the rear thereof into piles. The city will then see that it is removed.

Convention Delegates
We are also reminded of the fact that we will shortly have the privilege of entertaining 4000 delegates to the State Christian Endeavor convention that is to be held in this city June 25 to 29, inclusive. These people come from all over the state. They are red-blooded 100 per cent Americans in the prime of life. Most of these have no doubt heard of Glendale as the fastest growing residence city in the United States, as a city of homes and as a clean city kept clean. Therefore, the city of Glendale is co-operating with all the people in placing everything in order before their arrival. Our civic pride as Glendaleans requires us all to do our part in placing our city in a most presentable condition before the arrival of our visitors.

It might be well to say here on behalf of those people who have given so loyally and willingly of their time in arranging for this great convention that they are requesting the people of Glendale to open their homes for these delegates to the extent that they provide lodging and breakfast for those who will necessarily have to remain in the city during the convention.

Choral Society Has Election Of Officers

Important business was considered at the regular monthly meeting of the Seventh-day Adventist Choral society, which was held at Mrs. H. G. Westphal's, 337 North Isabel street, Saturday night. Election of officers for the coming six months was one item. Mrs. C. A. Brandstater, who was the originator of the idea of having a choral society for the church here, and who has served the society well in the capacity of president, was re-elected by a large vote. The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. W. Dunbar, was also re-elected by a general vote. As an aid to the above-named officers in arranging programs, the following were chosen to act as a program committee: Mrs. W. J. Johnson, Mrs. Retta King Nelson and Roy Schultz.

A short but interesting program was given as follows:
Victoria selections.
Reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," Mrs. H. G. Westphal.
Two vocal solos, Mrs. E. C. Brown, "A Trip Around the World," a musical exercise conducted by Mrs. Westphal.

Several readings given by Miss Lulu Blanche Hyatt.
A social hour sweetened with ice-cream and victrola selections closed the evening's pleasure.

Ice With Kick Put Into Pipes; Bang! It Gave This Man Bath

It was rather warm yesterday. At least those who were drinking near beer at Bill Kinney's place, 103 West Broadway, thought so.

In fact, the ice gave out and Ed Ranson, Kinney's partner, put some of the salted variety into the near beer coils which proceeded to freeze.

While struggling with the frozen mess, the bungalow on the beer barrel blew out twice, giving Ranson a bath of foam.

And they tell it had such a kick that the near-beer hit the ceiling, but that kick is due to carbonation—not alcohol.

Five Accidents Occur During Sunday Traffic

R. H. Cretsinger of 164 North Daly street, Los Angeles, is under arrest on a charge of driving while drunk as a result of a collision yesterday afternoon at Colorado and San Fernando Road with a San Fernando bus. No one was injured, but both machines which were loaded were badly smashed.

At a preliminary hearing this morning before City Recorder F. H. Lowe, Cretsinger was held on $300 bonds for trial on July 5.

C. C. Walker of 119 Howard street, Eagle Rock, reported that Robert Mead of 440 Ivy street hit his car with his motorcycle yesterday. Mead was taken to Dr. R. A. Chase's office where minor lacerations and contusions were dressed. Mr. Zan Zak of Burbank and J. D. Wallingford of Anaheim were drivers of cars which collided at Colorado and San Fernando Road. Their machines went to the garage for repairs.

C. W. Holland of 614 East Sixth street, Los Angeles, and D. McDougall of 200 Clinton avenue, Pasadena, smashed at Brand boulevard and San Fernando Road.

CLOSED SHOP ADVOCATES WIN LABOR BOARD VICTORY

CHICAGO, June 20.—Advocates of the "closed shop" won a victory before the United States labor board here today. The board announced that the majority of men in one craft may draw up working agreements which will affect all members. Since unionists are in the vast majority, this is a ruling in their favor, it was interpreted.

CASE OF 'BIG TIM' MURPHY IS BEFORE FEDERAL JURY

CHICAGO, June 20.—The case of "Big Tim" Murphy, labor and political leader charged with participation in the Dearborn station mail robbery, was before the federal grand jury today. Murphy, whose friends have deserted him, is still in jail in default of $100,000 bond. Part of the loot was found in a trunk at the home of Murphy's father-in-law. Murphy said he was "holding it for some one."

PLANS TO TAKE NEARLY $500,000,000 FROM DODGERS

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Nearly $500,000,000 will be forced from tax dodgers during the next fifteen months, the treasury office hoped, through a renewal of the nationwide drive to force correct payment of income, profits and special taxes. David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, today announced the government would undertake a renewed campaign against tax dodgers beginning in July. Flying squadrons of tax detectives will be sent to all big cities, Blair stated.

SOLDIER RELIEF LEGISLATION IS BEFORE THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Soldier relief legislation came to the front in the senate today. Action on several soldier measures is expected this week and enactment of the entire soldier legislative program by the end of summer was the expressed aim of leaders in congress. A favorable report today on the bonus bill, now named the veterans' adjusted compensation bill, was predicted by Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee. He declared he will call the measure up in the senate at the first opportunity. Consideration of the Sweet bill combining all governmental agencies for the benefit of disabled ex-service men into a veterans' bureau, will be started today by a sub-committee of the senate finance committee. The measure has passed the house.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET IS HEAVY AT OPENING TODAY

NEW YORK, June 20.—The stock market was heavy at the opening today. United States Steel was off 5-8 at 73 1/2 and almost immediately dropped to 73 1/4, a new low for the year. General Asphalt quickly dropped below 49, a price nearly 30 points from the year's high. Baldwin Locomotive was off 3/4 at 67. Studebaker was an exception to the general trend. It opened up 3/4 at 74 1/4 in response to reports showing it has earned more than a full year's dividend in the current quarter. Mexican oils were firm at fractional advances over Saturday's close. Rails were slightly lower. A selling wave hit the market shortly before noon carrying Steel common to a new low of 72 1/4. The oil group was the target for the bears. Large blocks of Sinclair were offered down to 18. Mexican Petroleum stood up well.

FINAL DETAILS FOR C. E. CONVENTION TO BE ARRANGED

Last Rally To Take Place
Tonight; Housing Problem
Is Proving Serious

Preparations for the welcoming of the thirty-third annual convention of the State Christian Endeavor, which will meet in Glendale for a five-day session this coming Saturday, are rapidly nearing completion. Tonight at First Methodist church a last rally and social meeting of the various committees will be held, at which time Chairman Howard L. Brown will deliver the final instructions to each committee.

One of the most serious difficulties confronting those who are working for the success of this convention is the lack of housing facilities for the incoming delegates. Between 4000 and 5000 delegates are expected to arrive this week, and estimates conservatively made from other conventions place the number of visitors at close to 10,000. The housing committee declares that 2,500 rooms are needed for the accommodation of the guests and that considerable less than half that number have been secured up to the present time.

It's Up to Citizens

To Glendale belongs the honor of being the first city with a population of less than 30,000 to ever hold a Christian Endeavor convention, and it is squarely up to the citizens to see that the initial effort of this city is a success. Anyone who has a vacant room to spare for a few days is requested to get in communication with the Christian Endeavor headquarters at 130 South Brand avenue.

"If the people of the community realized the importance of making this convention a success I am sure that the balance of rooms needed would soon be forthcoming," declared A. L. Baird, chairman of the finance committee and active in the drive for rooms. "We don't want to advertise the fact that Glendale is unable to house the delegates attending its first convention, but must send them to Los Angeles, Hollywood and other nearby cities."

Entire City Canvassed

Saturday the young people of Glendale were busy canvassing the whole city in order to find entertainment for the delegates who are expected to arrive Saturday, June 25, to be here five days. The committee in charge are: Miss Ethel Preston, chairman, Mrs. A. L. Hewitt, Mrs. J. B. King, Evangeline Quackenbush, Mrs. J. A. Newton, Nina Dana, Bessie Ross, Mrs. Edwin Murphy, Mrs. Frazee, Mrs. Glen Porter, Mrs. W. W. West and Mrs. Sarah McNary of Eagle Rock. They each had from six to ten helpers.

They report that most everywhere they were well received and were able at the close of the day to report accommodations found for about 1000 delegates. This was very good considering the many people who are away over the week-end and the need of rooms has been brought before the people of Glendale, but they felt that they needed time to think over the matter.

Sunday many reported that they would take delegates who hadn't seen their way clear before. Several said that they would crowd themselves a bit in order to take four instead of two delegates.

Co-operation Necessary

The committee will be glad to hear from many more people because more than 1500 places are needed. If the people of Glendale wish these visitors to stay here and not have

This money will be turned into the fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing the largest window for the new Holy Family church, the same to be a beautiful stained glass Tiffany window.

More than 200 persons attended the card party in the afternoon and more than 1000 attended the dance in the evening. Representatives were present from every Catholic church in Los Angeles, as well as a large delegation from Pasadena, Santa Monica, Glendale and many other nearby cities.

day.

EFFECT OF WAR ON WORLD TOLD TO ADVENTISTS

Elder A. G. Daniells, President
General Conference, Speaks To Glendale Congregation

Elder A. G. Daniells, president of the General conference, addressed a large audience at the Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday afternoon, many coming from Los Angeles, Pasadena and other points to hear an account of some of the speaker's experiences abroad during the past year.

He gave a graphic description of the war-form districts, telling of the awful conditions of famine and suffering he there witnessed, and showing the vast and unrealizable difference between conditions here and there and admonishing hearers to greater thankfulness. His description of the effects of lack of food upon the babies and children, and the rest of the horrors of that part of the world brought before the audience a vivid picture of misery and woe.

Refers to Prophecy

Elder Daniells showed how the world conditions are a fulfillment of the word the near coming of the Saviour He foretold the troubles of the last days. The wars, famines, pestilences and also the great church movements to evangelize the world are all rapidly fulfilling prophecy and point toward the near coming of the Saviour when there will be a restoration of all things. There will be no more sickness, suffering nor wars after that event. He said that if every person in the world could be converted there would be no wars now, but while hatred is in the hearts of men there will be wars. The gospel must be given to all the world but not all will receive it.

Spirit Shines Through War

As Elder Daniells visited the various headquarters of the denominational work he found the believers loyal and happy in spite of the terrible experiences they had gone through. Some of the conferences who had not heard from the rest of the world work for several years on account of the war conditions, were overjoyed to know that the gospel work was expanding and they were still a part of the General conference though shut off for a time.
After the service many pressed speaker, who is a man of great character and personality. Elder Dan-iells was no less pleased to meet old friends than they were to greet him.
He will be in attendance at the camp meetings soon to convene in southern California, one of which will be held in Alhambra July 21-31, which is the date for the southern California conference meeting.

THE SHORT CUT

An ambitious young man went to a university professor and said: "Sir, I desire a course of training which will fit me to become the superintendent of a great railway system.
How much will such a course cost and how long will it take?"
"Young man," replied the professor, "such a course would cost you $20,000 and require twenty years of your time. But, on the other hand, by spending $300 of your money and three months of your time you may be elected to congress. Once there you will feel yourself competent to direct not one but all the great railroad systems of our country."

to go over to Hollywood or Pasadena, they will all have to work together and do their part. These delegates have been invited to Glendale and Glendale has been so well advertised through the convention, that it would be regretted to have to send some of them out of town for accommodations. If you can do anything to help in this matter and show Glendale's hospitality, please phone Glendale 1967. Many are charging 50 cents a night for accommodations and 35 cents for breakfast, but even this is a great help.

Carpenters Needed
Under the direction of Guthrie Boyd, chairman of the building committee, work on the auditorium is rapidly progressing, the building being enlarged to accommodate 5000 people. Help will be needed this week and carpenters and other people who can help to put the additional seats in the new portion are greatly needed. Several men donated their services last week and it is hoped that more will do the same this week. As soon as possible a staff of decorators, under the direction of C. Stoler, will start the work of decorating the auditorium.

The publicity committee has announced that 80,000 bills have been placed in the street cars of the Pacific Electric system, and that 100 signs about two yards long and one yard wide, similar to the one in front of the C. E. headquarters, 130 South Brand, are being placed on the outside of the street cars.

Northern Special Saturday
The special train bringing delegates down from the north is expected to arrive Saturday morning, June 25 at 10:10 at the Southern Pacific station at South Glendale.
Many people have volunteered to donate their automobiles for the purpose of taking delegates from the station to the registration headquarters, opposite the Christian Endeavor auditorium. W. E. McCormick and Mr. Nelson have charge of the transportation.

A large tent, 100 by 60 has been obtained and will be erected across from the Christian Endeavor auditorium Friday. It will serve as entertainment and registration headquarters, and also the pages and guides committee will have their baggage checking room there and a refreshment stand.

For the comfort of the delegates in their daily meetings at the auditorium, the general committee plans to install a set of electric fans. While Glendale is noted for its equable climate, those in charge of the convention do not propose to take any chances on the antics of Old Sol.

Five Good Government Candidates Are Named

Candidates for members of the city council endorsed by the Good Government League today are the following:

Dwight W. Stephenson, chairman of the present board, a former service man and an attorney.

A. H. Lapham, a member of the present board who represents the western part of the city.

Clarence E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital and widely known here.

Samuel A. Davis, named by the Oak Street Improvement association, and known in business.

Spencer Robinson, member of the present board, and real estate dealer in the eastern section of the city.

With the slogan "keep Glendale going straight ahead," the league has opened an intensive campaign to carry on its ticket on June 28. Headquarters have been established at 204 East Broadway.

Mother And Daughter Accused Of Perjury

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Wanted in Colorado on a charge of perjury in connection with homestead land grants, Mrs. Minnie H. Cagos and her daughter, Mrs. J. Housler, were arrested here, and are out on $1,500 bail today for their appearance before United States Commissioner Albert Trego for the second federal judicial district of Columbia.

The women were arrested June 10 by agents of the department of justice. The women explained that they, in company with the husband of Mrs. Housler had just completed a motor trip from Cheyenne, Wyo., when arrested and that they had planned to go to Texas to inspect oil lands they owned there. They also claimed ownership of about $30,000 worth of real estate in Cheyenne.

Beefsteak Dinner Is Enjoyed By Big Crowd

The annual beefsteak broil and picnic of Unity lodge, No. 368, F. & A. M. of Glendale took place Saturday afternoon at Griffith Park, with Fred Deal and A. H. Lapham in charge of preparing and serving refreshments for 200 members present. These two gentlemen have made a reputation for themselves for their excellent serving of lunches of this kind. An army of volunteers put the eats on the table and a pair of part-riders cleaned up the "leavings."

The chief pastime of the afternoon was a baseball game umpired by Fred Baker, assisted by all present.
This game was played according to Hoyle, of course, by a team of all stars and amateurs, with the exception of Roy Hogue, who was determined to play on the winning side and succeeded by playing on both sides at once.

Genial and jolly "Dad" Ravenscroft was promised a silk hat if he slid, stole or ran to first base. His friends are admonished to watch for the new hat.

Only darkness finally drove the party from the park, with the satisfied faces indicating a full house for next year's picnic.

Full Page Is Given To Local Institution

There are probably a number of Glendale readers of the July edition of "Popular Mechanics" who did not recognize "the original drive in fruit stand" as a local institution. A full page is given to the description and picture of the unique establishment, describing it as one of the most novel and original creations since the roadside fruit stand was introduced in southern California several years ago.

The stand is known as "Newby's Corner" and is located at 710 South San Fernando Road. The owner, R.
E. Newby, is a resident of this city, living at 654 West Milford street.
The stand in question was started by Mr. Newby on February 3 of this year and since then numerous similar business places have been established throughout the country. Mr.
Newby's entry was selected by "Popular Mechanics" from a field of about forty.

IF SHE WERE HE
It was their first real quarrel.
"If I were you," she said, during a lull in the domestic storm, "I would

"Of course you would," he retorted decisively.
She is still puzzling over his words.

CHRISTIAN HOME IS AMERICA'S NEED, SAYS PASTOR

Rev. W. Edmonds Scores Jazz, Speaks Of Spooners And Beach Slumber Party

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." These words, from Josh. 24:15, were the text of Rev.
W. E. Edmonds' Sunday morning sermon at the Presbyterian church.
Following is a resume:

"This is a positive declaration. It is not 'We will try.' The revival society most needs today is not revival of trade. Commercial prosperity cannot be the chief good in a nation's life. Neither can revival of good government, nor racial purity, or physical soundness, nor education. There is a thing bigger than all these—the revival of the old-fashioned Christian home. There are certain forces, well organized efforts, which aim at the vitals of the home.

Our Cardinal Points
There are four things you have to remember:

"First—The home is a divine institution.

"Second—In the laws of God there are certain laws how these homes are to be conducted.

"Third—Prenatal influence, which should shape character of offspring.

"Fourth—Proper administration of household life and habits.

"God sets forth the unity of husband and wife. 'They two shall be one flesh.' The believer ought to marry in the Lord. God also said he would visit the iniquity of the fathers unto the third and fourth generation. One does not go very far now till he comes to flashes of lightning. There are damning influences at work today to undermine the home and break up the family.

Decrees Experimental Marriage

"Those who watch the signs of the times see alarming signals. One of these is experimental marriage. Not so long ago the Colorado legislature considered a bill to legalize marriage contracts for a limited time. A woman wrote a book on "Trial Marriage." God established marriage in Eden as a divine institution. When man has put his hand to it he has made a sorry mess of it. Criminal trials unblushingly parade fashionable debauchery and adultery, and women bizzards crowd the divorce courts after the social sewage of life.

The young woman keeping company with a young man without considering if he be a Christian—you look well before you leap.

"There are many problems that face the family. People are saying it is so difficult to bring up children right."

What God Expects

"Look out! God commanded you to bring up children in the fear of the Lord, and He expects you to do it. Jonathan Edwards was a son of most godly parentage, and from him sprung a great line of great character and high usefulness. On the other hand, the records of the notorious Jukes family show a multitude of imbecile, criminal and useless. A godly old Englishman named Stan-wick always prayed, 'God bless the nation's unborn.' He lived to see his posterity godly and in places of very high usefulness. Catherine Booth, mother of the Salvation Army, boldly said to God, 'I will not have a godless child.' Can we imagine God indifferent to a vow like that? There is a pre-natal training.

Hymns Instead of Jazz

"There is the unconscious influence in the home. First, the papers and books that are there. And you need to consider your pictures. People pay plenty for pieces of furniture; but nobody speaks of the influence a chair has had upon them.
But the pictures, and the mottoes!
And music—the jazzy, miserable music, clean it out and burn it up.
So many don't know the unconscious influence of good hymns, good music.

"Now, week-end trips. These week-ends without God, the influence of these on your children—they are likely to break your hearts.
And about slumber parties—about these young people getting together indiscriminately.

What Fishermen Saw

"There are too many autos parked in darkness. A man at one of our beaches, out very early for fishing, found a bunch of young folks, although chaperoned, paired off sleeping, each pair under one blanket.
Parents don't know where their children are. Instead of letting them go tearing around, why don't you send them to Christian Endeavor?
The idea of our young folks always having to be entertained! They need to learn to do."

Ammunition Sources Being Closely Watched

LONDON, June 20.—Seizure of machine guns at Hoboken, N. J., intended for Irish revolutionists, has resulted in steps being taken for closer co-operation between Great Britain and the United States to curb similar filibustering expeditions, it was announced at the Irish office.

All sources of ammunition supplies for the Sinn Fein will be closely watched in the future, it was said, especially those in the United States where most of the munitions are believed to have been originated.

General Thompson, inventor of the machine guns which were seized, refused today to make any comment.

Within thirty days the Crystal and Colored Glass company will be op-new concern. A large market for colored glass is reported on the Pacific coast.

Herd Adds to Its Record

Hartsbook's herd of Holsteins at Lankershim continues to add to its recent record. Colantha Creamelle Kordyke, a junior four-year-old, has just finished a record of 28 pounds butter in seven days; Henrietta Roderick, an aged cow, made 27.59 pounds butter in seven days and over 100 pounds of milk in a single day, while Madrigal Cornucopia Segis finished 26.5 pounds butter in seven days as an aged cow.
How does that compare with the cows back east?

To Secure Church Funds

A campaign opens in Burbank today to secure funds for the completion of the Methodist church, an imposing edifice. In addition to cash contributions a "donation" auction sale will be held June 25 by W. F.
Holloman, the proceeds to be turned over to the M. E. congregation.

Chickens Feature for Fair

The poultry committee of the San Fernando Valley Fair and Market met last week. Dr. J. Irwin Royce represented Glendale. Both utility and fancy birds are being entered in the lists, the former class being given a place in recognition of their commercial worth to the valley.

Plan to Keep City Clean

To keep San Fernando clean the Community Council has succeeded in getting the city to purchase large rubbish cans which have been placed in convenient places. Henceforth, no one should skid on a banana peel in San Fernando.

Plan to Greet Official

The Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Fernando Valley will hold a valley reception in honor of the new county supervisor, Henry W. Wright, early in July at Lankershim as a part of the regular meeting. Other prominent speakers of the evening will be Egerton Shore, one of the new members of the Los Angeles Board of Education, and D.
J. Shultis, president of the San Gabriel Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce. The Lankershim directors of the Associated Chambers are preparing a big program of entertainment that will be long remembered.

Director Roscoe Farm Center

W. H. Bach has been named director of the Roscoe Farm center with C. S. Berryman vice-director and L.
R. Collins secretary and treasurer.
Twenty-five members were enrolled at the organization meeting.

Objects to Demonstration

A Glendale automobile salesman, while demonstrating a car at Burbank, was reprimanded by City Marshal Catlin. He was making Olive avenue, a steep hill, on high. Maybe Burbank don't like our speed.

Water Spreads Johnson Grass

Johnson grass may be spread by aqueduct water, according to a report received by valley ranchers from County Horticultural Commissioner H. J. Ryan. He is investigating the matter with a view of having the Johnson grass exterminated in those sections of Inyo county from whence Los Angeles obtains its water supply.

Tuesday Is Bargain Day

Tuesday is bargain day in Van Nuys. The merchants there not only are providing entertainment, but cutting the cost of living to the core for the San Fernando valley residents in their trade territory. That's one way to make a place popular.

Dance at China Company Plant

The American Legion of Burbank which provides 140 by 104 feet of floor space. This event will take

Candidates for City Council

Endorsed by

Good Government League

Stephenson, Robinson, Lapham, Kimlin, Davis

Five good, competent men---all are for a clean, progressive city

DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON—Chairman of the present Board of Trustees. An ex-serviceman; a rising young attorney; a fine citizen and a most efficient presiding officer. The city needs Mr. Stephenson.

A. H. LAPHAM—A member of the present Board, having been unanimously appointed to fill a vacancy. Mr. Lapham has made good on the Board and has made friends by his evident sincerity, his zeal for the public welfare and his espousal of worthy projects. Mr. Lapham but recently introduced the swimming pool ordinance which will be voted on at this election.

CLARENCE E. KIMLIN—The well-known manager of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. No better man could have been found in Glendale to take a position on the Board. Mr. Kimlin is always active in civic matters and his administrative ability and experience will be a great asset to the city.

SAMUEL A. DAVIS—Mr. Davis is as yet untried in an official capacity, but his many friends are certain that a man successful in business and successful in securing and retaining the respect and confidence of his associates and acquaintances is good council material. Mr. Davis unquestionably has the strength of his convictions.

SPENCER ROBINSON—Member of the present board. A sincere, honest, successful business man, never neglectful of his civic duties. Safe, sane and progressive. One who is not afraid to back up his convictions. His host of friends will re-elect him.

THE GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE IS PROUD OF THIS STRONG TICKET

The three incumbents being familiar with the city's work is an advantage not to be overlooked and voters who have their own interests at stake will appreciate the necessity of returning these men. Two new members such as Kimlin and Davis, experienced business men, on the Board will be of inestimable value, both to the Board and to the city.

SANTA BARBARA HAS EDGE ON LOCALS; 5 TO 2 SCORE

Long Trip Taken By Team Also Helps To Defeat In First League Game

The Glendale Elks baseball team, playing its first game in the newly organized California Elks Baseball association, was completely outclassed yesterday by the Santa Barbara squad, the score being 5 to 2. The contest was played on Santa Barbara's home grounds before a crowd of a thousand spectators. Credit should be given the local lads, however, as they were pitted against an aggregation of more seasoned and experienced performers, some of them having been former members of major league teams.

Begins at Beginning

Santa Barbara began scoring right off the bat, counting up three markers in the first inning. This was done on singles by Caldwell, Smith and Skinner, and an error by Brown. Glendale's catcher, "Chuck" Flanders, lead-off man for the locals, opened the game with a nifty double to center field, but perished on that base while the next three batters were easy outs.

Glendale's two runs came in the third and eighth innings, respectively, both being made by Bolin. Santa Barbara scored her final brace of tallies in the fifth and were never in danger from that time on.

Following is the box score:

Balloon School Will Provide Four Boxers

Four husky lads from the army balloon school at Arcadia will be brought to Glendale Friday night for the American legion boxing show. They will be matched with local boys and some fast three round bouts are predicted. Charles Potter, former officer in the air service, arranged with the athletic officer at Ross field for the men.

Music for the evening also is being arranged by Allen Bullis, chairman of the program committee. Again the ladies are invited to attend and it is expected that a record throng will attend.

Apparently there is no hope for the railroads unless somebody starts a buy-a-freight-car movement.

Alfred F. Priest Preparing Plans; J. G. Huntley To Build $6,000 Home

Alfred F. Priest, architect, residing at 1422 North Central avenue, is preparing plans for a one-story brick store building, 50 by 70 feet, to be erected at the northwest corner of Louise street and Broadway for Lucy P. Knott. It will contain three stores. Old gold and ivory face brick and plate-glass windows will make it a most attractive structure.

Mr. Priest also is taking bids on a 10-room hollow tile residence to be erected at San Gabriel for W. C. Muloch. Among other news of local interest mentioned in the Southwest Builder and Contractor, it is stated that J. G. Huntley of 221 West Broadway, Glendale, is building a $6,000 home on Highland avenue, near Kenneth Road, just outside of the city limits.

It also is announced that Mrs. N. D. Darlington of 416 South Grand View avenue, Los Angeles, will build a two-story business block on her property at the southeast corner of Louise and Broadway.

Live Cole Class Is Leading By 30 Points

The spirited membership contest between the two largest Sunday school classes in the Central Christian church, namely the Live Coles and the Alpha Omegas, has just passed its fifth week, the coveted first place having been held by both contestants during the first half of the campaign. At present the Live Cole class, which is composed of the young married people of the church, is leading the procession by thirty points, but their competitors plan to overtake them during the next two weeks.

The Live Coles held their regular monthly business and social meeting last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marple of 202 West Palmer avenue, with about fifteen members in attendance. Following a short business session the merry-makers enjoyed music and games, after which a delicious course of refreshments was served.

Mrs. C. A. Perry Gives Luncheon To Officers

Saturday, June 18, Mrs. C. A. Perry of 111 North Louise street entertained at luncheon the new and the retiring officers and the principal, Miss Waite, of the Colorado boulevard P. T. A. The house was decorated with pink tulle and asparagus fern, the school colors being pink and green. To find their places the ladies were each given a slip of pink cardboard decorated with a pink rose-bud and fern, on which one letter of the word "Colorado" was written. She then found the place with that letter--of cardboard--covered with Cecil Bruner rose buds.

The table was exquisitely dainty, with the luncheon cloth given the hostess by her brother, Lieutenant Randall Hyer, and used for the first time--the white and gold tea-set which had been handed down in the family for generations, and the place cards spelling their school name in the rose buds. The luncheon cloth, besides being a thing of beauty, has a historical value. Lieutenant Hyer while serving in the Argonne Forest, was able to keep the women in a nunnery there supplied with food, and they, in their gratitude, presented him with the cloth and napkins, for which they had raised the flax, woven the cloth and embroidered it.

The favors were most unique, and appropriate. For the new president, a toy horn, that she might attract the attention of all--the new vice-president a horn of smaller size; for the one officer who remained an officer for another year, an emery ball with a pin, and the comment "She's a sticker;" for Miss Waite, who is an ever-present help, an emery board for being "always on the job;" Miss Brandt, the new treasurer, was given a toy wrist watch as she is to be the watch-dog of the treasury.

The four old officers each received a celluloid toy which always returns to an upright position because "nothing can keep them down." Mrs. Perry was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Nellie Snow Hyer, of Long Beach.

Those present were: Miss Waite, Mrs. Dodson, Mrs. Cline, Mrs. Perry, old officers; Mrs. Cronkhite, re-elected secretary; Mrs. McKee, president, and Mrs. Lewis, vice-president, for the coming year.

'DEAR KATIE' LEARNS CITY IS WITHOUT TOURIST HOTEL

People Come Here, All Rooms
Taken, So They Promptly
Purchase Residence

Glendale, June 20, 1921.
Dear Katie—For joy and mirth on a blue Monday, a newspaper office would make a dentist's office seem like a haven of peace. Today I went to the office as is usual. The boss was there, tapping his fist on his desk and he looked at me as cold as a quart of orange ice.

Well, he says to me, what am I going to write about today?
He sounded kinda sarcastical, but I threw a paper on his desk and I says as how last night I had a mid-summer night's dream on how Dempsey is going to win in the ninth and there is the facts about it, so he could go ahead and bet on it all he wanted to. Well, he took up the paper and I thought he was going to inspect it, but he didn't, he inspected me.

Then he begun to ball me out cause I don't spell better and he says I must of learned the alphabet backwards and got my grammar in the school for scandal.

Well I says, I don't have to use the whole English language to write a book like Webster did anyway.

Then Katie he banged his fist down on the ink well and he says as how all I have to do is to WRITE artikles, while he has to READ em and as a reporter I'd made a fine paper hanger.

I agreed with him Katie, just out of politeness, but here I am hangin on a like a splittin headache to this job as strivin reporter and my future looks about as cheerful as a pig goin to market.

Pro and Con—Mostly Con
Then he gave me a lot of advice, pro and con and he told me to go take a walk. So out I went Katie, but I wasn't in any hurry, cause I didn't have no place to walk to.

The way the boss and I got along would make that Dempsey-Carpenter fight seem like a four o'clock tea party. Well, I went over to the P. E. station and set down and the way I was feelin would of made a wild man look like youth in a merry mood.

Well, pretty soon a old man come along carrin a satchel and a umbrella and a overcoat.

He sit down beside me and he says to me, where is your blooming tourist hotel in this burg. Well, I says as how in the first place it aint MY hotel and in the second place it aint a bloomin hotel and in the third place we aint got a tourist hotel anyway.

Katie, he looked as surprised as I'd look if Carpenter should win. Then he told me he had come all the way from Chillicothe, Mo., cause he had heard about this city of Pure Delight and he had figured on puttin up at our tourist hotel for a while, cause home to him is where the hotel is, and he says as how he's got money enough to take life easy. And, Katie, I guess if the chief clerk in the Alexandria could of seen the big sparkler in that guy's strait bosom, he would of fainted for pure joy.

Well, I begun to feel as cheap as overcoats in the Sahara desert but I says, no, we aint got no tourist hotel, but we got something just as good. We got a nice climate and pretty palms and some beautiful streets.

Then he opined as how he'd go to H— first, meaning Hollywood, I guess, cause he couldn't eat the palms and he wasn't goin to sleep in the streets.

Well, I says, not to be outdid, just stick around, cause we got 4000 strangers comin in a few days that's going to be in the same fix as he was. But, he says, what do all the visitors and tourists do which come to visit in Glendale. Oh, I says, that's nothin. They just come skatin in on the P. E. and get off and look around in awe and surprise and the town looks so good to em that they run like everything to the nearest real estate shop. There they buy a house and lot and a sanitary couch and in less than 24 hours they have settled down as citizens of Glendale for the rest of their days. This town I says, with its powers of attractiveness has got the Garden of Eden lookin like the "I-lage of Wauwautsa. And Katie, he took my word for it.

Of course, I says, Glendale needs a tourist hotel as bad as I need a vacation and it's dollars to detulsions that someday we'll have a hotel that will make the Ambassador look like Uncle Tom's cabin.

Well, Katie, my conscience begun to hurt me so I got up to come home. I was afraid he might ask me where the postoffice was and I didn't have the nerve to tell him we didn't have any. The last I seen of him he was going down Broadway lookin for Irene's Castle, I guess.

Well, Katie, I'd rather be a strivin reporter than a hotel clerk, anyway, cause a job as reporter is easy. Is it not?

Don't you think so? Neither do I.

Yours for room and board,
E. C. HALE.

Hundreds of picnickers hied to Monte Vista park yesterday, and the social center of Sunland was more than crowded with motorcars. Anita Stewart Stars Palace Grand Today

"Sowing the Wind," which has Anita Stewart as its charming star, opened an engagement at the Palace Grand theatre yesterday and was received with unmistakable approval by a large audience. It can be classified as one of the really good pictures of the current season and it is of more than the usual appeal since it contains all the elements which go to make up a modern picture of ceaseless action. Miss Stewart, by a finished performance in her portrayal of the character of a beautifully innocent girl whose mother is a "queen" of revellers in a notorious gambling house, commands hearty sympathy. She registers the changing emotions of a girl in such a predicament with fine shading and no one can go away from the theatre without taking the feeling that it makes no difference what obstacles an evil fate may place in the way of a human being, there can come happiness ultimately. The most interesting phase of the story hinges upon the girl meeting the man of her heart and her subsequent battles to have and to hold him despite her totally unsatisfactory maternal antecedent. Another interesting twist to the narrative is her discovery of her own father, who proves to be a very interesting character. A splendid suspense is maintained until the very end of the picture.

"The Fight of the Age," pictures of the Dempsey-Carpenter camps, is the added attraction which is creating unusual interest. Tomorrow, "Partners of Fate" is the feature.

U. S. Government Is Keeping Within Income

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—With ordinary expenditures totaling slightly more than $5,000,000 for the fiscal year to end in two weeks, the government will have kept practically within its income for the first year since 1914, reports of the treasury department now indicate.

Predictions that a huge deficit would pile up at the close of the fiscal year June 30 have been freely made for months by members of congress and some officials.

CHRISTIAN DOESN'T EVADE LAW, SAYS FATHER O'NEILL

Penalty Of Contempt For Spiritual Authority To Be Paid, Says Pastor

"A consistent Christian must logically be a good citizen. A Christian does not evade the law, either in civil or spiritual matters."

"If a man show contempt for civil authority, he pays the penalty."

"In a like manner the penalty for contempt of spiritual authority must be paid sooner or later."

These truths embrace the warning contained in the Sunday sermon by the Rev. Father James S. O'Neill of the Church of the Holy Father on the tendency of so-called modern thinkers to treat with contempt those who are God's chosen mouthpieces on earth, and flaunt their own views in the face of constituted authority.

"No matter to what material heights a man may ascend, he is still amenable to the spiritual things of life, and none is so great that he can turn a deaf ear to the wise counsel of Holy Mother church, or deny the authority of her inspired leadership," declared Father O'Neill.

"Even Bismarck, greatest of German statesmen, paid the penalty, when he underrated the spiritual life as compared with the material. Backed by mighty material power, he carried his contemptuous treatment of the Church even to the point of persecution," said Father O'Neill, "thinking to control by material penalties the conscience of men."

"But like others of this day, when he realized the futility of this stupid attitude, he was not big enough to admit it."

Where Term Originated
"I will not go to Canossa," he said, "but despite all his power Bismarck did go to Canossa."

The term, "Go to Canossa," Father O'Neill explained, originated in 1105, when Henry IV of Germany, whose contemptuous treatment of the church had aroused the German princes, was forced to make peace with the Pope, standing before the gates of Canossa, a castle of Tuscany. "As in the case of Bismarck and the German monarch, the spirit of rebellion toward Holy Mother church and her ministers still exist, but also like their cases, the ultimate reckoning must be made."

"Whether we 'Go to Canossa,' or seek some other way to make our peace, we must pay the price or be abandoned spiritually, just as he who shows contempt for constituted civil authority is denied the friendship and support of his fellow men until he repents."

That if said second proposition for incurring indebtedness so submitted at said election receives the requisite number of votes, to-wit, two-thirds of the votes of the qualified voters voting at such election, bonds of said City in the amount of $22,000.00 shall be issued and sold for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and completing said municipal improvement. Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness.

Section 8. That in all particulars not recited in this Ordinance, said election shall be held as provided by law for the holding of municipal elections in said City.

Section 9. PLUNGE BOND ISSUE WILL BE BOOSTED BY CAMPAIGN

House To House Workers To Preach Gospel Of Pool For Glendale Youths

Tonight at 7:45 o'clock, committees interested in carrying the swimming pool-park bonds at the coming municipal election on June 28, will meet at the city hall in the council chambers and get ready for a house-to-house canvass for signatures to the following pledge.

"Let us keep pace with neighboring cities and offer new settlers the same as they can obtain in nearby cities. Believing a swimming pool is absolutely necessary in Glendale, and believing it would greatly attract new people here, and have a tendency to keep our boys and girls at home, I heartily pledge to vote and support the bond issue for the swimming pool."

This movement is supported by the Chamber of Commerce and it is expected that after two years' of work, the issue will be popularized to a point of success.

Literary Classic Is Feature At Glendale

The great literary classic, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," a William Fox production, was greeted at the Glendale Theatre last night by a large audience and an enthusiasm seldom witnessed in a picture house.

Mark Twain never wrote anything funnier than "A Connecticut Yankee," or anything more representative of the spirit of America. It is the challenge of the New World to the old. The principal character, Martin Cavanaugh, is a typical Yankee with a long line of New England ancestors. He has heard a good deal about the glories of the "good old times," and when he is suddenly transplanted to King Arthur's Court he has an opportunity to find out the truth for himself. He discovers not only that the plumbing of King Arthur's castle is bad and that it is awkward to live without telephones, railroads, automobiles and other useful things, but also that he is more than a match for the Knights of the Round Table in personal courage and fighting ability.

The same program with Harold Lloyd in "From Hand to Mouth," another great comedy, will be seen today. Madame Clement is providing unusual musical effects at the organ and the lighting is exceptional. Tomorrow night a benefit for the Boy Scouts will tax the capacity of the theatre, it is believed. The lads are selling tickets for the show.

Osteopathic Convention Program Is Elaborate

The California Osteopathic association will hold its annual convention at the Gamut club, Los Angeles, June 20, 21, 22 and 23. While Tuesday will be the opening day, Monday will be given over to a meeting of special committees, fraternities, the Osteopathic women's national association and the advisory council to the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. In the evening there is scheduled a reception and special entertainment for the visiting guests.

A most interesting and instructive program has been prepared and a number of prominent speakers will give talks. One of the features of the program will be a public professional lecture, illustrated, which will be given Tuesday night. The gathering will close Wednesday night with a banquet in Pasadena.

Local People Attend Outing Of Employees

A number of Glendale people took part Sunday in the outing of the employees of the Westinghouse Manufacturing company, who were the day's guests of J. C. Buckner of the New York office of the concern and A. J. Szechner, who is chief engineer of the U. S. S. Tennessee. The affair took place on the decks of the Tennessee, which is the newest member of Uncle Sam's Pacific fleet.

During the day the ladies were entertained in the officers' dining room with an excellent musical program while the men were conducted on a tour of inspection of the electrical equipment of the huge craft. The delicious luncheon was served in the officers' dining room.

Those from Glendale who enjoyed the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Yarbrough, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Myers, Misses Grace Yarbrough, May Aldridge, Eleanor Rich and Ruth Dryden and G. H. Rowe.

Mr. Yarbrough, who is district engineer for the Los Angeles office, was also a luncheon guest on the Tennessee today.

Ends Year's Activity With Picnic Outing

Friday, June 17, chapter BA of the P. E. O. concluded their year's work with a picnic at Echo Park, to which their husbands were invited. The ladies went in the afternoon and had ready a hot dinner prepared by Mrs. Oliver Clark and her assistants, to which the men did ample justice on their arrival. After-dinner ball games and boating on the lake claimed attention. The chapter was fortunate in having chosen the best day of the spring for such an outing. The weather was perfect, and as they all returned in the moonlight they voted it a perfect end of a perfect year's effort, and themselves ready to rest from their labors till their next year's work begins in October.

Cafeteria Supper Is Given By J. W. S. Class

Members of the J. W. S. class of the First Methodist church entertained with a cafeteria supper Friday night at the home of Miss Lavera Kitterman, 311 North Kenwood street, in honor of Harriet Beattie, a member of the class who is leaving this week for the east. During the evening a play, to be presented by the class the latter part of this month, was rehearsed. Those present included Harriet Beattie, Pauline Wilson, Janice Cecil, Frances Betz, Charlotte Cleveland, Evelyn Traver, Ruth Dana and Katherine Kitterman.

Birthday Dinner Party In George Damon Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Damon of 1001 South Central avenue entertained Saturday evening at a very delightful birthday dinner party. The house was prettily decorated in red roses and fern and the table decorations were red candles with a large bowl of red roses as the centerpiece. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Litchburg of South Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cressee of Highland Park. The evening was spent in dancing and a very enjoyable time was had.

St. Mark's Parish To Picnic On Wednesday

Arrangements have been completed for the annual picnic of St. Mark's parish, to be held Wednesday, June 22, at Brookside Park, Pasadena. Tables have been reserved in section F. The members of the parish and their families will assemble at the church. Conveyances for transporting them to the park will leave the church at 10 o'clock. A basket dinner will be served at noon.

OLD FOLKS' DAY IS OBSERVED BY LARGE NUMBER

Founder Of Plan Is Present And Makes Address; Old Songs Are Featured

A special service, Old Folks' Day, was held in the morning at the First Methodist church yesterday. A large number of elderly people were present in addition to the usual congregation. Some with impaired health were present for the first time in the new church building. The music consisted of the old familiar hymns, "How Firm a Foundation," a solo, "Palms of Victory" by J. B. Clarke, male chorus and anthem by the choir, "They That Trust in the Lord."

Rev. C. R. Norton, the founder of the First Methodist church here, made the opening prayer. Rev. S. B. Warner read the 90th Psalm, which was followed by a brief address by D. H. King, D.D., of Hollywood, Dr. King has just come to California from Vineland, N. J., where he was pastor of the Presbyterian church for twenty-five years.

Responsible For Custom

In the year 1892 he held the first "Old Folks' Day"—so far as is known—in the country, and continued it during the remainder of his pastorate, which was twenty years. It is still held on the second day of September of each year in that church. Besides giving an account of his connection with this day, now observed in different parts of the country, Dr. King spoke of his favorable views on California and how he hoped to spend his remaining days here. He also spoke of his bright prospects of another and brighter home whose skies and fruitful fields even exceed this land of fruit and flowers.

Dr. Crist then delivered a most helpful and inspiring sermon on "The Compensation of Old Age." He paid a tribute to the toils and labors and achievements of the fathers and mothers in Israel. He spoke of the beauties and wonders of God's creation, telling how the works of God are shown everywhere, in all the kingdoms, animal, vegetable and mineral, and how above and over all is man, of whom the Psalmist says, "Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands, thou hast put all things under his feet." He described relationship and cooperation with God, how he has created us, and endowed each and

Mrs. Nellie S. Hyer Visiting In Glendale

Mrs. Nellie Snow Hyer, formerly of Glendale, is here from Long Beach, visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Perry of 111 North Louise street. Mrs. Hyer is president of the auxiliary of the American Legion of Long Beach and is taking a short but much needed rest. The Long Beach auxiliary is working earnestly for boys of the late war. The ladies have taken over the care of the boys, about two hundred at Banning, doing for them all they, as auxiliaries, are able to do. Mrs. Hyer expects to divide her time with Glendale and her daughter as much as possible this summer.

Two Bicycles Stolen, Police Are Informed

Two bicycles were stolen over the week-end, according to police reports. Frank Owens of 310 West Lexington drive lost his wheel while it was parked at the rear of the Pacific Electric station. Eugene Clark of 336 North Maryland had his stolen from the rear of Chaffee's store. Looks as if clean-up day had started already.

everyone of us with certain distinct characteristics, with individual likes and dislikes, all differing physically and mentally, and yet to each is given the opportunity of improving the talent of a choice in the directing of our lives, of employing our will and determination in the developing of the best that is in us.

"This life comes to its maturity in old age," he said. Another compensation is the thought that our work is almost done. The trials and tasks are mainly behind and the fuller life, the commencement is just ahead. A brief sleep and then the awakening in that blessed morning, to be forever with the Lord. The Apostle Paul had this in mind when he said, "For now we see through a glass darkly, but the face to face now I know is part; but then shall I know ever as also I am known."

At the close of the service bouquets were handed out to those over 70 years of age. The committee in charge of the service was W. F. Tower, W. N. Bott, J. E. Phillips, Mrs. R. C. Sipple and Mrs. Floyd Reed.

More About The State Convention

During our canvass of homes on Saturday for the entertainment of delegates, there has been hundreds of homes thrown open to these visitors. Our advance information indicates our having more delegates than we have anticipated.

NOW MR. AND MRS. GLENDALE, are we going to let these people go to Los Angeles, Hollywood, Eagle Rock and Burbank for places to sleep? We know you won't stand for that. We do not want to advertise adjacent towns, and it won't be necessary if you will do your bit. Show your spirit of co-operation by calling up C. E. Cleanup Day, Tuesday June 21, 1921

"Glendale, a Clean City Kept Clean"

To live up to this slogan eternal vigilance is required as well as the co-operation of all of the people in the city in the use of every available agency to that end.

The city of Glendale has provided ample means for the promotion of cleanliness. There is no real reason why there should be at this time any large accumulation anywhere within the city of waste matter or rubbish or that there should exist any condition within the city limits of Glendale that is in the least unsightly or unsanitary.

The ideal is a clean city kept clean every day.

From the report of committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce and the city to investigate these matters, it would seem that we have not as yet reached this ideal. Let us have it said on Clean-Up Day, Tuesday evening of next week, that every citizen of Glendale has done his or her part in obtaining this ideal and in so doing has placed the responsibility for its complete fulfillment upon the city service to dispose of all accumulations of rubbish and waste matter that have been set out for removal by the people; and then once having obtained that ideal, let us as citizens employ to the largest extent the means provided by the city for keeping our private premises and the streets and alleys clear of all waste matter and rubbish and of everything that would tend to give our private premises or the city an unkempt or unsightly appearance.

Four Thousand Visitors

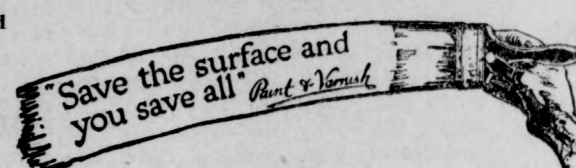

There is a special reason why Glendale should maintain its reputation as a Clean City Kept Clean at this time. We will have the privilege of entertaining 4000 delegates to the State Christian Endeavor convention that is to be held in this city from June 25 to the 29th inclusive. It is expected that at least 3000 of these delegates will be visitors in the homes of Glendale people during this period and of course it needs no urging to enlist the co-operation of all the people in a united effort to have our individual premises and the city at large present the very best appearance to these visitors.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees the entire Glendale community is solicited to join in one grand clean-up day next Tuesday, June 21, 1921.

T. W. WATSON,
City Manager.
